PREMIER OUTLINES VIEWS OF THE BRITISH

LONDON, September 17.—Prime Minister Lloyd George replying today to the communication of Eamon DeValera on Friday says that to receive the Sinn Fein delegates to the proposed conference as representatives of an independent and sovereign state would "constitute formal and official recognition of Ireland's severance from the king's domains."

Mr. Lloyd George says that so long as Mr. DeValera insists that the Irish delegates should confer as to the representatives of an independent and sovereign state, a conference is impossible.

In his reply, Mr. Lloyd George declares it is idle to say that a conference in which the British representatives had to meet the Sinn Fein plenipotentiaries as the representatives of an independent and sovereign state would be a conference "without prejudice."

"To receive them as such," the prime minister says, "would constitute formal and official recognition of Ireland's severance from the king's domains. It would entitle them to make a treaty, but it would equally entitle them to make 'no' treaty and to break off the conference at any point and negotiate a union of Ireland with a foreign power."

"The government is prepared to discuss how the association or Ireland with the British empire could best be reconciled with Irish aspirations, but they could not consent to any abandonment, however informal, of the principle of allegiance to the king, upon which the whole fabric of the empire and every constitution in it are based."

"While Mr. DeValera insists upon claiming that the Irish delegates should confer as representatives of an independent and sovereign state a conference between them is impossible."

GAIRLOCH, SCOTLAND, September 17.—(By the Associated Press.)—The receipt by Premier Lloyd George of Eamon DeValera's telegram of yesterday, in which the Irish leader expressed the view that the peace negotiators should meet untrammelled by any conditions "except those imposed by the facts as they know them," is considered to have brought about a change in the situation.

It has opened up the possibility that the prime minister may reply to this communication before consulting his cabinet colleagues, as he had announced his intention of doing before talking any further steps in connection with Irish affairs. Mr. Lloyd George passed a good night at his vacation home here and was very much better this morning.

MOVIES AND MORALS WHAT IS THE PRICE OF SUCCESS? MRS. CALHOUN REVEALS

MOVIES and morals are being discussed everywhere as a result of the Arbuckle case. What price must a girl pay for a movie career? people ask. The question is answered in this series of articles written especially for The Portsmouth Daily Times by Mrs. Florence Calhoun, mother of Alice Calhoun, the Vitagraph star, who in five years has risen from a $5-a-day extra to a $1,000-a-week performer.

BY FLORENCE CALHOUN
Mother of Alice Calhoun, Vitagraph Star, the Youngest in the Movies
WHAT will assure success in filmland?

Whoever has attained stardom expects to receive this question in every mail.

There is but one answer to it, a brief one, often an unwise one, because many immature but brilliant fans see a film heroine only as an exquisite creature flitting daintily through thrilling scenes in charming environments.

And it all looks so extremely easy! A little glowing, a few fine clothes, and an opportunity to shine and nothing more.

That it took work of the hardest kind, the work of scores of capable, energetic men and women to produce the effect of easy smoothness, is often outside the comprehension of the uninitiated.

Storms Move Toward Lakes

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 17.—Strong southwest winds, a fairly penetrating rain intensity this afternoon and tonight over Lakes Superior, Michigan and Huron, and a heavy rain forecast for the day by the weather bureau. Fled From Russia

NEW YORK, September 17.—Sroul Ostrovsky, who was a lawyer in Russia, and 27 relatives, of whom sixteen are his children, were at Ellis Island today awaiting to go to Akron, Ohio, to complete a migration begun last March, when a Bolshevik raid ruined their home town and the family's wealth disappeared. With their few remaining possessions done up in bundles, Ostrovsky, who is 56 years old, his children, three sisters and their husbands, his brother and his wife, and three nieces, walked nearly 100 miles to the Hungarian border. Thence they came by rail to Antwerp, and waited two months for funds to reach them from Russia's brother, Abraham, in Akron. From Antwerp they went to Hamburg and thence came to New York on the steamship Orbita, arriving here yesterday.

PHONE MERGER ORDERED

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 17.—The state utilities commission today issued an order authorizing the merger of the Ohio Bell Telephone Company and the Ohio State Telephone Company, on the joint application of the two concerns on which a hearing was recently held. The order stipulates that the rates now prevailing shall obtain under the consolidation.

The name of the unified is to be the Ohio Bell Telephone Company.

Properties of the consolidation are given a valuation of $81,316,327.00, but it is expressly ordered that this valuation shall not be used in any proceedings in the future involving change in rates or charges. The order includes the following paragraph:

The commission authorized the consolidated company to issue and sell 180,000 shares of preferred stock at not less than 90, proceeds thereof to be used in retiring outstanding notes and other evidences of indebtedness, and the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the parent company of the Ohio Bell, to accept 240,000 shares of common stock of the consolidated company in exchange for the same amount of stock now held and to acquire the 180,000 shares of preferred to be issued by the new company.

POISON GAS AS MEANS OF WARFARE COMES TO STAY; AMERICA TO SUPPORT IT

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright 1921 by The Times Publishing Co.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., September 17.—Poison gas as a means of warfare has come to stay, American military experts join with those of other countries in insisting that the gas bomb is just as human as the bullet and the 100-lb. bomb shell. Any idea that the United States army expects to use the gas bomb in the future is a delusion, they advise the American public to the conference on limitation of armaments to propose the prohibition of poison gases can be dispelled as one of the questions.

Man In Evening Dress Heads The Whiskey Thieves

CINCINNATI, O., September 17.—United States prohibition officers and Cincinnati detectives were trying to find a clue today to 30 barrels of whiskey that was stolen late last night from a bonded warehouse in the west end of the city by five armed men.

Directed by a man who had on formal evening dress, the four other robbers forced William McGarry and John Cusgrove, watchmen, into the office, cut the telephone wires and then proceeded to roll out the barrels. "Don't worry. All we want is the whiskey," the leader of the band told McGarry.

When a large truck was loaded, the men thanked the watchmen for their patience. "We'll come back again sometime," he said.

Then he and two others drove away in a touring car, the others driving the truck.

The thirty barrels are valued, in bootlegging prices, at about a thousand dollars a barrel.

Permitted One Quart Of Hard Liquor

PETERSBURG, VA., September 17.—Under a ruling laid down by Circuit Judge West, a citizen has the right, regardless of the prohibition laws to have one quart of hard liquor in his personal baggage. The case in which the ruling was given yesterday in the Sussex county court, was not decided in favor of the defendant, however, the jury, after some deliberation, finding him guilty on the ground that the whiskey wrapped in a sock and deodorized that a sock could not be construed as "personal baggage."

Want Slag Rates Cut

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 17.—The National Tube Co., Pittsburgh, today filed with the state utilities commission an application requesting that slag be included with steel, gravel and other road building materials in any order which may issue from the commission providing for a reduction in freight rates.

The company contends that it ships large quantities of slag and slag screenings from its mills at Lorain to the state highway commission and township trustees, all of which is used in road building.

In Pennsylvania, it was said, slag is regarded as road material in computation of freight rates.

Cast For New Court Scene

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., September 17.—Comedian Roscoe Arbuckle was cast today for a new court scene in the tragedy of Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, who died, according to accusers of Arbuckle, following a drinking orgy in the actor's apartment in a San Francisco hotel and as a result of mistreatment by her host.

Today Arbuckle was to be arraigned in superior court upon an indictment charging manslaughter, returned by the county grand jury. But his arraignment is more formally it was said, and District Attorney Matthew Brady was scheduled to ask a continuance of the manslaughter case until action has been taken on the charges of first degree murder pending against Arbuckle in connection with Miss Rappe's death.

Murder Charge Will Be Pushed
The district attorney has announced the murder charge will be pushed and it will be left up to a jury to decide whether Arbuckle shall be convicted of first degree murder, second degree murder, manslaughter or turned free by acquittal. There was also one other alternative, which was that if the police court at the preliminary examination of Arbuckle failed to hold the comedian to answer to the superior court on a charge of murder, the state would be forced to go to trial with the manslaughter indictment.

Acquittal or conviction on the murder charge would mean automatic dismissal of the manslaughter charge, for the law holds a man may not be twice placed in jeopardy for one crime.

Gets Lots of Mail
Crowds here before court opened today attempted again to gain places of vantage about the court room of Superior Judge Harold Landerback, where Arbuckle was to be arraigned, that they might view the film star. Arbuckle in all his court appearances since his arrest, has shown disinclination to

A number of prominent local young men were ordered to appear at police headquarters Saturday afternoon on connection with an investigation of the finding of a young woman, giving the name of Bertina Eastwick, 20 years old, lying along the Galena Pike, West Side, at an early hour this morning. The girl was found by two men named Rollins and Hasselip who brought her to the city and turned her over to the police.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise:—Will you tell me if there is a street called Love in Charleston, W. Va., and when you send a letter to Page, W. Va., is there their post office address? Please let me know at once.

GREEN HORN.
There is a Love street in Charleston, and a small village named Page, in West Virginia.

Dear Miss Wise:—Is it all right for a girl to go automobile riding and stop along the roadside and let the engine of the car rest? That's what all the girls in my neighborhood say they do. Do you think girls can keep their self respect long if they do things like that? Please give us your opinion on this subject.

CHUMS.
If every one in your neighborhood goes car riding and stops along the road, it is high time some one did something different. Joy rides at night are unquestionably one of the causes of immorality. I think, however, that a girl who lacks self respect is in danger in the living room of her own home or anywhere else, while a girl who respects herself too much to be cheap, is safe anywhere. The safest place is to avoid danger. Young girls should not go joy riding unless chaperoned.

Dear Dolly:—As you have helped others I am asking you for some information. Now Dolly, which horse has the fastest record in the United States, "Man O' War" or "Single O"? Also tell me the time they made.

RACE HORSE FAN.
"Man O' War" is the fastest horse on record. This record is one mile in 1:59. "Peter Manning" beat "Single O" last week. Their time was 1:31 and 1:39 1-4.

Dear Miss Wise:—I am a young boy and have been living here a year, but I can't seem to make any friends. I need girls but never get to be true friends to them. I long for more true friends. Please tell me how to get them.

LONESOME GUY.
Friendships cannot be forced, but they can be helped along by meeting people half way. If you are interested in the people you meet, and talk to them about things they enjoy, they will like you. Remember that it is as much your place to suggest going places with a girl as for her to make the suggestion to you.

Dear Miss Wise:—Please tell me how to remove hair dye from the hair.

THANK YOU.
If you will inquire at a drug store they will recommend a good remover. If you don't want to do that, you will just have to wait until it wears off.

NOW is the time to buy your coal. Pay cash and buy for less money. See our coal and get our prices before placing your order elsewhere. It will pay you. J. P. Flannigan & Son, Phone 225, 703 Market street, Portsmouth, Ohio. Advertisement. 9-16-17-18

BEFORE AND AFTER CHILDBIRTH
Mrs. Williams Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her in Health
Overpeck, O.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me both before and after my baby was born. I suffered with backache, headache, was generally run down and weak. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers and decided to try it. Now I feel like a new woman. I take care of my two boys and do my own work. I recommend your medicine to anyone who is ailing. You may publish my testimonial if you think it will help others."—Mrs. CARLIE WILLIAMS, Overpeck, Ohio.
For more than forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring women to health who suffered from irregularities, displacements, backache, headache, bearing-down pains, nervousness or "the blues." Today there is hardly a town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman does not reside who has been made well by it. That is why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is now recognized as the standard remedy for such ailments.

Novel Ways Of Trimming Sleeves

By MARIAN HALE
NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Although the sleeve is the thing, so far as size goes, there's a lot to be said about sleeve trimming.
Chiffon and crepe ribbon are rivals for attention this year.
In a Joseph frock of black, indestructible chiffon voile, crepe ribbon is used with a lavish hand.
The large angel sleeves which reach to the wrist are banded with seven rows of this shiny ribbon. Fifteen rows encircle the full skirt.
Chiffon, softer and more pliable, is used most gracefully on the Roman gown of drapery. The sleeve—long, flowing and bell-shaped—is heavily worked in chiffon. The same design decorates the skirt of this straight-lined frock.

Women Better Unionists!

600,000 Are Represented by National Women's Trade Union League.

By N. E. A. Service
WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Women are making better "unionists" than men.

So says Miss Ethel Smith, secretary of the legislative committee of the National Women's Trade Union League.

Miss Smith's organization represents 600,000 working women banded together in unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. And more women are joining every day.

"The best organized trade union I've ever seen in operation is one composed entirely of women," Miss Smith says. "That's a union of women employees of the Bureau of Printing and Engraving here."

"It has 1000 members. Their work is anything from helping pregnant to performing and counting stamps."

"If you don't believe women have a head for organization, you ought to go to a meeting of this union."

"I wish Congress could see this union in session. Our legislators might be able to learn a lesson or two."

League's Principles
The National Women's Trade Union League stands for collective bargaining, and eight-hour day and 44-hour week, a just wage for occupation and not on sex, and full citizenship for women.

Its legislative department here initiates and promotes labor legislation, especially measures relating to women.

Its educational department maintains a training school for women organizers at Chicago, and a research division at New York which gathers information concerning women wage earners throughout the world.

Brain Power Hereditary.
Organic brain power is on the average transmitted by heredity nearly equal among us, as we are only a thirty-second remove from each other and at least one thirty-second of the possibilities of genius.

Brain power is a social inheritance, socially acquired artificially. Society is an artificial institution, and what we acquire is the sum total of the experience of our race, the past history in a condensed form. It is utterly impossible for us all to become geniuses. The product of genius must be used up as we need it for genius to develop.

DR. F. H. WILLIAMS COMING HOME; ILL HEALTH IS CAUSE OF DECISION

Local friends of Dr. Frank H. Williams have received word that he is on his way home from Armenia, ill health having caused him to give up his work in the Far East section.

Dr. Williams has been working for the American Red Cross in Armenia, according to word received here he sailed from Constantinople on Sept. 7 and will soon arrive home.

Friends had not heard of his ill health and were surprised when word was received that he had to give up his work and return.

Care of Paintings.
The pictures in a home are apt to suffer from the lack of attention which in time detracts from their appearance. Oil paintings should be lightly cleaned once a year, being wiped gently with a very fine sponge or chamois leather wet with clear water. Do not use soap or any other cleansing substance in the water. Immediately after spraying polish the surface lightly with a dry silk handkerchief. Gilt frames should be dusted frequently. A camel's hair paintbrush is effective for this. Fly marks can be removed by the use of a little white of egg.

Mrs. Carl Schmidt and daughter Virginia of Harrisonville avenue, New Boston, were guests Friday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strickland of Grandview avenue.

Mrs. Isabel Thomas' Sunday school class of the Second Presbyterian church will meet Monday evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. T. M. Patterson, corner of Franklin avenue and Kinney's Lane.

A WIFE IN THE MAKING

BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS

JANES PROBLEM
"What's up, Janey? Are you in mother's black looks again, or has someone hurt your feelings?" asked Cherry, as she followed Jane to her room.

"No, just clean tired of living in this one-hole town and can't stand it any longer," burst from Jane temporarily. She kept her head averted and fledged with the wind of the window shade, as she announced this.

"Come, come, dear, it's not really as bad as all that, surely?" said Cherry, trying to speak as lightly as she could. For she saw that her sister-in-law was at her wits' end for some reason or other. And she knew Jane was a girl who needed careful handling.

"Cherry, is eighteen too young to get married?" was her next question, face still averted.

"Too young? Why, I don't know exactly how to answer that, Jane. For some girls it's quite all right. Take you for instance. You are such a your wings at every single turn? That's how I feel and it's more than I can stand any longer, too. Mother has been at me to appreciate Sidney Allison for the last year. 'Tis such a model young man. So safe! So altogether praiseworthy and well-brought-up in my way of thinking," she finished savagely. "I like Sidney same as I love the lot of the boys whom I have grown up with, in a mild way. You know, nothing big or emotional about it all. And it's not the way I want to have a single moment of worry about it. It is the sort of man that mother should have married, but he'd never in this world suit me. He thinks that I am erratic already. What would he think if he lived with me?" Here she went off into peals of mirth at the very idea of being attached to the absent Mr. Allison.

"Well, Jane, dear, if you don't care for Sidney, there's no problem in that seen sometimes as though could be smothered by your surroundings, and as though everything and everybody's mind was convulsing against your striking care for in the real way? That's what I want to know?" and she waited for Jane to answer.

"Oh, just clipping!"

Workman Is Electrocuted

IRONTON, O., Sept. 17.—Joseph Werner met a sudden and tragic death Friday evening when he was electrocuted while at his work at the Foster Stone Co. plant on South Second street. Mr. Werner was night foreman and had charge of the sand blasters, coming on duty at about three in the afternoon after the mounds had finished and was almost through his work for the evening when the accident occurred. Mr. Werner was operating a sand blaster, a machine designed to pulverize the sand after its use for moulding purposes. A workman coming by hand with shovels

The machine which is mounted on wheels, for the purpose of allowing it to be moved about over the entire floor, had an attachment something similar in principle to the ordinary lawn mower. This attachment when the machine is in operation, drops down and thoroughly cuts and mixes the sand. Power is furnished through a flexible cord which coils or uncoils from the inside of the machine as it is moved about. At the time of his death the unfortunate operative was adjusting some part of the machine, the entire structure of which, had in some manner become charged with electric current. George Riddle, night watchman, was the only person in the room when the accident happened. He states while not observing the machine at the time, his attention was attracted by Werner and that on running to him he found that he was held right in the power of the current standing upright alongside the machine and that on touching him, he was shocked himself. He then ran outside and found a Mr. Henniger who ran in and jerked the cord supplying the electric current from its socket. This released Werner from the current and he fell to the floor after being in the grip of the current for about 4 minutes. Dr. Romp was called and responded at once but the victim was dead when he arrived. 410 volts of electric current having passed through his body. The unfortunate victim of the accident was 32 years of age, and is a son of Godfrey Werner of Eighth and Spruce streets. Since his marriage, however, he has made his home in Ashland, Ky. He served with distinction with the aviators forces during the late war.

New Pastor At Trinity

Sunday will be a big day at Trinity Methodist Church. All members will want to meet the new pastor, Rev. W. C. Milikan. The church is at the corner of Fourth and Court streets, two squares West of Chillicothe on Fourth, Good music of course.

"CUT-BACK" ON LIFE OF FATTY ARBUCKLE

By N. E. A. Service
SANTA CLARA, Cal., Sept. 17.—This is a "cut-back" in film parlance from the tragic Virginia Range episode in Rose Armbuckle's life, but it is a "cut-back" in her life. It is pictured by the 62-year-old stepmother who has long felt herself persecuted by him. The husband is a humble home on the outskirts, where Mrs. Armbuckle, lifelong bread-winner over the wastefulness passes to realize her dream of a luxurious life. When as a mother with five children, she married Rose's father with a level of four, Mrs. Armbuckle married the boy through adolescence. She speaks with tender pity of his serious youth when the pompadour that was to make him celebrated, served him as a target for the village jokes. She tells of his chronic laziness, of his unhappy days at school, of his availing efforts to stir him to industry. And then she directs the spotlight along the road to fortune taken by this puzzling lad, tells of his failure to write, and his indifference to her increased struggle when the husband deserted the double bed. "But it is no more than I expected," she states, with neither bitterness nor reproach. "He was aggravatingly lazy as a boy. Neither his father's efforts nor my pleadings could cure it. He didn't do any work and didn't contribute toward the family support. "Rose didn't seem to fit in the family. He quit school in the fifth grade. I urged him to go back, but Mr. Armbuckle was indifferent; and when he did start, his father compelled him to wear overalls and worn shoes, so that the children teased him. That last Rose and he stayed away, spending his time near a river fishing in the fall." "This father used to beat him and he often grieved it. "Then he started hanging around saloons, finally getting into his bad ways, drinking the floors. He'd fix a step ladder on him for a mug of beer at some times, obdurate, he seemed to have plenty of energy. "When he left Santa Clara he owed a number of people. I suppose he's just forgotten as he forgot us. "He's never written to me or any of the family. Often he's driven through the town in his live auto, but he never stops to say hello. "No, I have never gone to see him in the movies. I'm not without my pride, and if he wants none of us, so let it be. "I pity the boy. I hope he's not guilty of that dreadful thing, but if he is I would see him punished." Contrast Striking Other members of the family show resentment at fate, for the queer twist that brought their kinsman opposite out of slothfulness with they've but a mere living for their slothful industry. This feeling the stepmother shows no sign of sharing, although there is striking contrast between her humble dwelling and the sumptuous home of Rose Armbuckle in Los Angeles, with its $25,000 in the garage. Unlike the paternal home of her famous stepson, Mrs. Armbuckle's house is lighted with kerosene lamps and has few modern conveniences. She carries the water from a well for her water-splashed her method of life, which, supplemented by aid from her other sons, now all grown. On the lean floors are rag carpets, of her own weaving. One of her two daughters helps with the housework. Mollie Armbuckle is proud of toll, gives much, asks little for herself and has indicated the way for her brood without complaint. "They are all poor," she says of her family. "And they have all helped—except Rose." Thus the "cut-back" fades and the real man picks up the following campaign in the cell of San Francisco's city prison. HINTERS BEWARE Positively no trespassing. Trapping for hunting of any kind allowed on French Grant land owned and patrolled by the following parties: Ford Vinger, Emory Grah, Anthony Gerlach, C. N. Holcomb, Peter Grimm, Herman Compton, Harry W. Miller, Mike Ann, Walter Lukins, W. L. Patton, Hayes Shultz, Dick Gerlach, Gayle Brothers, Geo. Gerlach, Jim Burke, Frank Eckhardt, Adam Beck, Frank Beck, 14-R.

Football League Formed In Schools

Coach F. B. McCollin in charge of general athletic work in the high school and public schools is organizing a football league in the public schools. In this way it is hoped to train the students in the fundamentals of the game before they reach high school. Nowadays Freshmen very seldom make the team on account of lack of experience, but with the boys coming into high school with some football experience it is hoped to have several good Freshmen on the varsity team each year.

Garfield, Highland, Union, Massie, McKnight and Bond street schools will have teams in the league. The games will be played on Saturday mornings on the sixteenth street lot with the first game Oct. 1.

The captains of the teams in the league are Ellis Stitts, Garfield; Lawrence Flowers, Highland; Donald Schwartz, Union; Richard Wendell, Massie; Everett Riggs, McKnight and Charles Mullin, Bond.

WATER WILL BE OFF SUNDAY

City Water will be shut off Sunday long enough to permit a crew of city workmen under Water Works Manager George P. Shute to make necessary changes of making connections and turning the water from the temporary main at Danardin Hill back into the old line repairs to which have just been finished. The work will start at 6 a. m. and may take only a few hours and again it may require most of the day but Main Street is confident that the work will be finished and service resumed by Monday.

Patrons are urged to lay in a supply of water so that no inconvenience will result from the shut off and it will be well to turn out the gas under hot water tanks as heating an empty tank may result in damage, officials say.

Traffic Ordinance In Ironton Being Enforced To The Letter

IRONTON, O., Sept. 17.—Forty-five automobile owners began reporting to Mayor Collett this morning and each one was assessed a fine of $5 for violating the traffic ordinance. This campaign continued and each time a youth "stepped out" on Center street to show off his cut-out, or parks too far out in the alley intersection, fails to have a tail light burning, or otherwise violates the city's traffic regulations he will be ordered to pay a fine of five dollars and if the offenses continue with regularity the fines will increase in severity. The officers don't care because it is easy to go out on the street and take names and numbers and order the auto owners to report for a fine. So if the speed merchants, chronic cut-out users, illegal parkers, etc., do not observe the rules rigidly in the future, they must suffer the penalty. The city authorities claim they have given sufficient warning and the autoists bring judgment upon their own head by persistent violation, carelessness and negligence.

This is the sixth year of the Festival—everybody knows just what to expect, only this year it will far exceed all previous years. The merchants and farmers have over one mile of display booths.

New Bank Building In Ironton

IRONTON, O., Sept. 17.—The directors of the First National Bank Friday commissioned Frank L. Packard, an architect of national repute, of Columbus, O., to prepare plans for an exclusive bank building to be two stories in height. The architect was also instructed to prepare plans for a six story general office building, with quarters for a great banking institution on the ground floor. Both these sets of plans will be reported at the same time and the directors will at that time decide whether or not it will construct a two-story or a six-story structure. The new building is to be erected at Third and Park avenue, on the property recently purchased from R. W. Rowland and it will greatly enhance the beauty of this section of the city. The First National Bank is one of the strongest banking institutions in the tri-state region and a new and elaborate home for the bank is an absolute necessity. The First National is now located in the old First National bank building, at Second and Railroad streets, those quarters having been enlarged and remodelled following the merger of the First and Second National banks several months ago.

When A Boy Reaches That Period Where He's "All Hands And Feet"

No wonder he feels grieved if he is obliged to wear ill-fitting and unsightly shoes in order to gain service.

NO NEED OF IT

We prove right here that strong wear and good appearance can be combined. Don't buy cheap shoes for the boy. It won't pay—it's wasting money. Such shoes are the most expensive shoes you can put on the boy's feet. I know for I have a real boy and any shoe that wears him will wear your boy, too.

The St. Louis Nationals kept up with their fellow citizens, the Browns, by winning a ninth inning victory over Philadelphia. The St. Louis team occupy third place in their respective leagues. What most matters dreamers and hope to do—hit a home run with the bases full—was accomplished yesterday by George Sisler, the Browns' star first sacker. His homer in the game against the Yankees came in the ninth inning, the ball going into the lower tier of the right field stands.

Harry Dunham will take his speedy team of All Stars to Waverly on Sunday, Sept. 25, for an engagement with two representatives of the Pike county capital on the diamond. Dunham has signed Chas. Delottel and Chuck McDaniels as his battery for this fray and he will have a strong lineup to stack against the Waverly warriors on this occasion. Dave Schneider is again back in the Waverly lineup and the manager there has lined out to strengthen his outfit for his combat as he realizes that his charges will have to jump to make a showing against the River City gang.

Ice Barrier Caused Falls.

Niagara Falls came into existence because ice in past ages closed the ancient outlet of Lake Erie. The lake overflowed along a new course, which caused it to tumble over a cliff.
